

Jobcentre Plus support for employers – quick guide

Jobcentre Plus recruitment events

Are you recruiting? Jobcentres across the country hold regular events where employers can meet potential applicants for their vacancies.

Jobcentres can also offer interview rooms and desks free of charge for employers to hold pre-arranged meetings with quality candidates for formal interviews or informal discussions.

Please note, these events and services depend on the local facilities available.

Benefits for business

Jobcentre Plus is here to help employers recruit, develop and retain quality people who can help your organisation thrive. We have lots of quality candidates and can help find the match for you, whether that's for one vacancy, or many.

- A chance to meet a range of quality candidates who might not otherwise apply for your vacancies
- We can arrange appointments for you to meet, or interview, potential employees
- Find out more about the help Jobcentre Plus can offer recruiters
- Find out about local initiatives to support your business and your recruitment

Together we can make a real difference to the lives of jobseekers and the local community.
